Introduction

EDI is a leading international awarding body that was formed through the merger of the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry Examinations Board (LCCIEB) and a leading online assessment provider (GOAL). EDI now delivers qualifications internationally through a network of over 4000 registered centres in more than 100 countries worldwide. Our range of qualifications is trusted and valued by employers worldwide and recognised by universities and professional bodies.

The following resources have been developed to help teachers, especially new teachers, plan what they need to teach in order to cover each level of the JETSET syllabus (JET Version). The support materials consist of:

- Learning Activities and Resources
- Suggested Course Structure (For each level)
- Sample Learning Activity (For each level)

Learning Activities and Resources (All Levels)

Teachers should employ a variety of learning activities in order to motivate their students and make the learning experience as stimulating and enjoyable as possible. Here are some suggestions:

- Use of Radio/TV/CD/DVD
- Role play
- Drills
- Chaining
- Simulations
- Dictation
- Matching exercises
- Games
- Gapfill
- Cloze exercises
- Peer editing
- Authentic texts (newspapers, magazines, leaflets, packaging, advertisements etc)
- Graphs, charts and timetables
- Proof reading
- DARTS (Directed Activities Related to Texts)
- Use of real objects

The following websites are an excellent source of support with some refreshing ideas for teaching English at all levels (see also recommended dictionaries and textbooks in the JETSET Specification):

Further resources to support the JETSET qualifications include sample exam papers and candidate workbooks. Please either contact your local EDI representative or visit the EDI website (www.ediplc.com) for more information and to find out how to acquire these additional resources.

Foundation Level JET Version

The suggested course at Foundation Level has 20 units, each of which covers the three areas of the JETSET syllabus: communicative function, grammar/linguistic structure and vocabulary. The course allows for periodic units of consolidation and a final unit of exam preparation during which sample assessment materials should be introduced. Each unit comprises 5 hours' teaching time, which should be broken down into shorter units at the teacher's discretion. It is recommended that learning activities last between 20-60 minutes each.

It must be stressed that this is a suggested course structure and is not meant to be definitive. In ESOL teaching, the key words are flexibility, variety and balance. Teachers should respond to the needs of their classes, and choose a range of learning activities that encourage students to use their reading, listening and speaking skills, as appropriate. (The Speaking Test is optional: see Specification.)

In order to learn effectively young learners need:

- frequent change of activity
- teacher approval
- to have their curiosity aroused
- to be stimulated by language learning
