

JETSET LEVEL 3
READING TEST
JET VERSION
PRACTICE PAPER
MARKING SCHEME

Part One

1. A = True
2. B = False
3. A = True
4. C = Not in text
5. B = False
6. C = Not in text
7. A = True
8. A = True
9. B = False
10. A = True

(10 Marks)

Part Two

11. B He was reading a magazine.
12. B They went to Spain.
13. A He learnt to wakeboard last year.
14. B Because he loved biology.
15. C Sunday at 2 o'clock.

(5 marks)

Part Three

16. D

17. B

18. C

19. A

20. B

(5 marks)

Part Four

21. C don't you

22. C didn't he

23. B do you

24. D can we

25. C isn't he

(5 marks)

Part Five

26. C Yes, I did!

27. A It lasts about 17 hours.

28. B He was learning English.

29. C It was on Saturday evening.

30. A It wasn't me.

(5 marks)

Part Six

Choose the correct answer from the choices (A, B or C) on the next page to fill the numbered gaps. Mark your answers on your answer sheet.

The first true fish ³¹ _____ about 500 million years ago. They were the first fish to have back bones but they ³² _____ bones in their mouths so they could not hold or ³³ _____ hard food. Millions of years later, fish developed jaws which meant they could eat other fish. Many new types of fish ³⁴ _____ at this time, so it is known as the “age of fish”. After millions of years, fish began to grow teeth and ³⁵ _____ like the fish of today. The largest prehistoric fish ³⁶ _____ as long as a bus. It had teeth that were as big as an adult’s hand and ³⁷ _____ open it’s mouth so wide that four people could have stood inside. Some fish had even bigger teeth, ³⁸ _____ were about 60 centimetres long.

There are more than 21,000 types of fish today. People ³⁹ _____ always eaten fish from the sea. Some fishermen use nets which ⁴⁰ _____ behind their boats as they move through the water. When the nets are full, the fish are lifted onto the boats. Then it is off to the market.

Part Six (continued)

- 31. A lived / used to live
- 32. C didn't have
- 33. A eat
- 34. C developed
- 35. B became
- 36. A was
- 37. C could
- 38. B which
- 39. B have
- 40. A are pulled

(10 marks)